

Departmental Honors Application

Requirements

To apply and be admitted to the departmental honors program, a student must fulfill the following:

1. Be an officially declared Philosophy major
2. Complete a minimum of three upper division UCLA Philosophy classes (not including 100A, 100B, or 100C) with an A- or better

To earn departmental honors upon graduation, a student must fulfill the following:

1. Have and maintain GPA of a 3.7 or better in all UCLA Philosophy classes as well as all upper division UCLA Philosophy classes
2. Complete the Honors Directed Study Requirement with a grade of an A- or better in two pieces of directed study work

All departmental honors applications must be ultimately approved by the faculty undergraduate adviser.

Instructions

1. Complete the Student Information and Departmental Honors Requirements sections.
2. Sign and date.
3. Submit petition to Philosophy Student Affairs Officer in Dodd 329 or via email at philcounselor@humnet.ucla.edu.
4. Please allow for 2–4 weeks for confirmation of your admission to the honors program via email. If approved and all requirements have been satisfied upon graduation, a notation of departmental honors will be noted on your transcript.
