

Approval of minutes of April 22nd meetingNew Business

- 1. Equity Statement for the website – Parker, Courtney, and Pamela will present a proposal for a statement, and other elements on the department website. We will discuss and revise if necessary, then decide whether to approve.
- 2. KPPE 2022-23 – What fields are doing the research cycle? Cosmo Grant's postdoc was extended to next year (decided last year) because the LLM cycle was robbed of a year in the pandemic, but Cosmo hasn't decided whether he's going to use it. (He'll decide by July 1st.)

Announcements

- 1. Merit Review cases – You have received email (subject: "Merit reviews") for reviewing and voting.
- 2. Department Self-Review – Your comments on this document are due Friday, May 6th, by 5pm if at all possible. The team will revise by Monday, May 9th and then we'll vote electronically May 10th and 11th.
- 3. Kalish Prize – You got email from Doug about how to nominate students. We will discuss those at the meeting on May 27th.
- 4. Paul C. Taylor Reading Group: In preparation for Taylor's visit May 29th-June 4th, we are having a reading group on his book Race: A Philosophical Introduction, a third edition of which has just come out. All in the department are invited, and everyone can get a copy of this book from Allynn (whether you wish to join the reading group or not). She's ordered 40 copies. I also send pdfs with all the email announcements. The remaining dates are:

Tuesdays 2-3, May 10th, 17th, and 24th, in the seminar room and on zoom:
